As a Senior Private Banker dedicated to the health care industry, Kyle brings a wide range of experience at regional, national, and international levels of finance, including tenure at the Bank of Canada, offering a unique perspective to his portfolio of clients.

Through TD's distinctive Discovery process, which is founded on the principles of behavioural finance, Kyle acts as the principal relationship manager addressing the requirements of his portfolio of clients. Kyle connects client requirements with his team of professionals in TD Wealth Private Investment Counsel & TD Wealth Financial Planning, Business Banking, TD Wealth Private Trust, and Wealth Advisory Services. Specializing in Complex Credit Strategies, Kyle works closely with his clients in the Health Care field to help ensure tax-effective borrowing is in place, and through his team of professionals in Wealth Advisory Services, provides Canadian and US tax-mitigation strategies.

Kyle holds an MBA in Finance. In his spare time, you can usually find him skiing on the slopes of Whistler.
