As a Senior Private Banker, I understand and care deeply about health care professionals, and the unique journey you are on. You take the time to listen, build a relationship and develop a plan to take care of them. Similarly, I will spend time getting to know you, your practice, and your specific needs. I will work together with my colleagues to develop a plan to help you achieve your goals, on your terms, on your schedule. You strive for excellence when taking care of your patients, and we strive for excellence when taking care of our clients.

I've been a trusted advisor to clients in professional, commercial and wealth management for over 22 years, joining TD in 2018.

With a practice focused on health care, I will work to customize and tailor our approach to what you and your family need. With my dedicated team of colleagues, we will help to ease the stress of managing your finances, so you can focus on your practice and your family.
