

Noura Hachimi-Idrissi

Senior Private Banker

1350 Boulevard René-Levesque Ouest, 8e étage
Montréal (Québec) H3G 1T4

T: 514-393-2984

Email: noura.hachimi-idrissi@td.com

Noura brings over 20 years of banking experience at TD in a series of roles including the role of Branch Manager for four different branches at TD in Montreal. Over the years, she has on several occasions received the TD Champions Club Award in recognition for her dedication, extraordinary employee spirit, integrity, and immense passion for each of her clients. In 2018, Noura decided to further pursue her career by joining TD Wealth Private Banking as a Senior Private Banker. In this role, Noura leverages her considerable experience and abilities in the areas of customer service, personal banking, business banking, credit and wealth management in order to strive to provide exceptional service to her clients.

Noura is a graduate of Haute École des Etudes Commerciales (HEC) with a B.A.A. in Finance. She has also completed the Canadian Securities Course (CSC), the Personal Financial Planning Course (PFPC), along with the Branch Compliance Officer course (BCO). Currently, she is pursuing the Executive Financial Planning program with the Institut Québécois de la Planification Financière (IQPF).

Noura is a proud mom of two children (Ismaël & Soraya) which keeps her weekends filled with exciting activities which include skiing, dancing and swimming. In her free time, Noura is an avid reader and supports several causes in the West Island Community as a volunteer.

