

I'm Lisa Kent. As a woman, a mother of three daughters, as well as being a daughter myself, I am aware of the challenges that many women, mothers and daughters face in the world of investing. We have a lot of questions and concerns. I believe that the best financial strategy is one that helps identify goals and provides a roadmap to help pursue them. My diverse team understands what it can take to help individuals and families manage wealth at all the various stages of life. We understand the unique wealth management needs of women and their desire to achieve financial security and independence. We can assist with defining family values, engaging in philanthropy and educating the younger generation on good money habits. Outside of work, I love to entertain and putter in the kitchen. I know that you need to get all the ingredients right and in the proper proportions to get the result you desire. I bring the same focus and passion to my job and work hard to make certain that we are paying special attention to all the necessary details along our client's financial journey. I am Lisa Kent. I am honored to serve my clients and proud to work at Merrill Lynch.
