Kirsten Ehrich

Registered Client Associate

A graduate of the University of the South in Sewanee, Tennessee with a Bachelor of Arts in English, Kirsten takes a keen interest in the stories of our clients' lives. She clearly and thoughtfully communicates with clients and colleagues, always being sure that whatever work is started, is work that is completed.

Her favorite and most heralded role is that of mother to her daughters, Charlotte, Lizzie and Cathleen. Her love of family no doubt started in New Orleans, growing up in the house in which her father was raised. The transitions experienced throughout her life as a daughter, parent, spouse, caregiver and friend serve as constant reminders of the importance of her contribution to the work of The White Oak Group and all the families we have the privilege of serving.

Kirsten is an integral member of the investment and wealth management ensemble which is The White Oak Group. Her appreciation of and active participation in music, choir and theatre carries over to the performances she helps direct, produce and choreograph every day for our most deserving audience – our clients.
