Steve Condos Named to The Financial Times' "Top 400 Financial Advisors"

NEW YORK, March 31, 2016 – Morgan Stanley announced today that Steve Condos, a Managing Director, Wealth Management and Private Wealth Advisor in the Firm's 1290 Avenue of the Americas Wealth Management office, has been named to The Financial Times' 2016 list of America's Top 400 Financial Advisors.

The "Financial Times' Top 400 Financial Advisors" is a select group of individuals who have a minimum of $250 million in assets under management (AUM) and ten or more years of industry experience. Qualified Financial Advisors were scored on six attributes: AUM, AUM growth rate, compliance records, experience, industry certifications and online accessibility. Financial Advisors also had to commit to complete anonymous quarterly sentiment surveys for the FT.

"I am pleased that Steve Condos is representing Morgan Stanley Private Wealth Management on this list," commented Ben Firestein, Complex Manager of Morgan Stanley's Midtown Manhattan Complex. "This is a well-deserved recognition of Steve Condos' experience, professionalism and dedication to the needs of his valued clients."

Morgan Stanley Private Wealth Management, a division of Morgan Stanley Smith Barney LLC, provides a range of investment services to ultra-high net worth individuals, families and related institutions in the United States, Latin America, Europe, the Middle East and Asia.
